Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of Classics (with responsibility for a suitably experienced, high calibre candidate). I hope that this information pack will help you to learn more about our fantastic school and that you will be excited about the prospect of joining our excellent team.

Riddlesdown Collegiate is an outstanding school (OFSTED, May 2016) with a clear vision to deliver successful outcomes and positive futures for all of our students. They are bright, well-motivated and a pleasure to work with, whilst our staff are talented, hard-working and ambitious for themselves and others. Our superb facilities enable us to provide the very best learning environment and learning experiences for our students and it is the combination of these factors that leads to the high academic standards and enviable reputation that The Collegiate Trust is known for. I am very proud of what we do and what we have achieved at the Collegiate and, as a World Class School, I hold the highest aspirations for what we will do and achieve in the future.

Whether you are at the very beginning of your career or are looking to develop your experience, Riddlesdown Collegiate is a great place for professional growth. NQTs benefit from a paid induction period, prior to appointment, and a well-established programme of support throughout the year, whilst more experienced colleagues have many opportunities to develop skills and extend their professional learning through an extensive and varied programme of professional development. Our aim in all appointments is to appoint colleagues who will share our aspirations and make a major contribution to building the best life chances for our students.

In applying to Riddlesdown Collegiate, you will need to understand our “small schools” model and your potential role within it. Our VALUES underpin the way in which we work and describe our high expectations and our emphasis on positive relationships across the Collegiate. Our motto, “Learners of today, Leaders of tomorrow”, applies as much to staff as it does to students and it gives an indication of the significance we place on nurturing talent and leadership. I shall make a presentation to shortlisted candidates at the start of the interview day to illustrate our structure further and outline our requirements for all colleagues who work with us.

I would be delighted to receive an application from you if, upon consideration, you feel that this role and the Collegiate may be right for you. To submit an application, please complete the form on our website, attaching where requested a statement of no more than two sides of A4, identifying clearly how you meet the person specification. If you have any further questions about this post, I would be pleased to speak with you; please feel free to telephone me at the Collegiate.

Yours sincerely

Mr S Dey
Principal

Key Information

We operate a “small schools” model – one school made up of a number of smaller learning communities, which we call Colleges, each with their own staff and facilities. Each College is led by its own Headteacher (who is an Assistant Principal) and has its own team of approximately 25 teachers and non-teachers, covering most curriculum areas. Students join one of the Colleges in Year 7 and remain there for five years before transferring to College VI, our specialist post-16 provision. In addition, the Creative and Performing Arts (CPA) College delivers specialist education to students across the Collegiate in Art, Drama, Design Technology, Media, Music and Physical Education whilst the MacKay College co-ordinates inclusion services to students with additional needs. Small teams, working with just 400 students each, allow us to provide even better pastoral care to all students, as well as engage with learners and their families in more effective partnerships. They also provide teaching across the curriculum and learning teams focusing on personalised approaches and best serving the needs of the individual students in their care.

Information about The Collegiate Trust

Our Trust works in the Crawley and Croydon areas with a clear vision to deliver exceptional education for all. Such an education achieves excellent outcomes in pupil progress and attainment, a rich creative, cultural and physical learning experience, and great personal and social development for all pupils. We achieve this by working with and developing strong teams of staff in each school, under the direction of the Principal of the school and the Local Governing Body (LGB)

The Trust has grown out of Riddlesdown Collegiate, an outstanding (OFSTED, May 2016) secondary school in Croydon with almost 2000 students and over 200 staff. Gossops Green, in Crawley, was the next school – and the first primary – to join the Trust, followed by Waterfield Primary (also in Crawley) on 1st March 2018. A second secondary, The Quest Academy (in Croydon), joined on 1st June 2018 and two further primaries, Courtwood Primary and Gilbert Scott Primary (both in Croydon) joined on 1st September 2018.

Each school within the Trust is supported centrally by a designated Director of School Improvement on teaching and learning issues, the Chief Operating Officer, Chief Finance Officer & HR Manager on business management and HR issues, and the CEO on wider leadership issues. This complements rather than replaces in-school functions and allows the Principal and LGB to operate with a high level of autonomy in delivering the highest standards in their school. The LGB works to a Scheme of Delegation approved by the Trust's Board of Directors.

Our Values

Our ethos is to be a community in which all members are valued and value each other. We are the leaders of the Riddlesdown community, responsible for our learning and the Collegiate. We work together to maximise our own achievement and those of others. In applying for a post at Riddlesdown Collegiate, applicants should consider how they would promote our values in their day-to-day work with students, colleagues and other stakeholders.

Our Students

The vast majority of our students join the Collegiate in Year 7 with above average attainment. Behaviour is outstanding and our students consistently demonstrate their desire to learn and to achieve. They enjoy coming to school (attendance is over 95%) and enjoy lessons where they can explore, investigate and feel challenged by their learning. They equally value the opportunities they have to learn outside of the classroom and we are proud of the extensive and varied extra-curricular programme that our students enjoy and benefit from. It is these additional, high quality learning experiences, together with a strong set of academic qualifications that we believe provides our students with the very best chances of success in their future lives.

Classics at Riddlesdown Collegiate

We are dedicated to promoting the substantial benefits of Classical subjects at Riddlesdown Collegiate and are passionate about sharing our enthusiasm for the ancient world with our students. We aim to instil creative thinking, curiosity, and open-mindedness in our students, alongside the logical and analytical skills which are inherent in our linguistic and cultural curriculum.

The main aim of the Latin teaching programme is to immerse our students into the classical world, whilst building their grammatical ability and vocabulary. We seek to challenge them linguistically and teach them deductive reasoning. In addition to this, our teaching of Classical Civilisation facilitates students to explore more fully the culture, literature, art, and history of the ancient world, in order to improve their understanding of past civilisations and their impact on modern society.

Our provision in Key Stage 3 enables students to later study either or both OCR Classical Civilisation and OCR Latin at GCSE. Therefore, our curriculum develops both linguistic and cultural skills in three lessons over a two-week timetable. All students work from the Cambridge Latin Course. In Year 7, all students study Latin. In Year 8 and Year 9 two ability-based teaching groups in each College study Latin, totalling 8 classes in each Year Group. In Key Stage 4 we have two Latin GCSE classes and three Classical Civilisation classes in both Year 10 and Year 11. At A Level, we also deliver Classical Civilisation and Latin in both Year 12 and Year 13. We also offer Ancient Greek as an ab initio course for Year 12s. Over two years they study Ancient Greek in extra-curricular sessions, working towards taking a GCSE qualification at the end of Year 13. A great number of our students go on to study classical subjects at university and a number receive offers from Oxbridge.

Our approach to the delivery of our subjects is reflective and adaptable to the changing needs of our students and developments in pedagogical approaches. The learning of our students is supported through the provision of challenging and appropriate teaching resources and materials, replaced and upgraded as necessary. We also supplement our curriculum with a great variety of extra-curricular opportunities. We regularly organise trips to a variety of classical sites, including Bath, Hadrian's Wall, The London Mithraeum, and the British Museum. For older students, there are a variety of visits to see classical plays and lectures, which enable the students to approach the material that they have studied in the classroom in a different light. In addition to this, we run an annual trip to a European destination, usually Greece or Italy. We are also involved in the Minimus Project and send our students to teach Latin to those in local primary schools. Each year we participate in teacher training by trainee mentoring and running training events through our links to the Classics PGCE departments at both Cambridge and King's College London.

We currently have four full-time specialist Latin and Classics teachers. Our Classics staff work closely as a team but also have links with other subject areas, particularly Drama, English and History. The department are energetic and committed to ensuring that all students enjoy full access to Latin and Classics and achieve the highest standards of which they are capable.
