On top of our proactive and supportive approach to employee wellbeing and development, we offer a range of additional employee benefits. Please click Here to see more detail about some of the fantastic employee extras we offer.

We have a comprehensive CPD programme, designed to ensure all staff in all roles have the opportunity to grow and develop in their career. Our appraisal process ensures that each and every member of staff is flourishing. Whether you are at the very beginning of your career or are looking to develop your experience, a school within The Collegiate Trust is a great place for professional growth. ECTs and Apprentices benefit from a focused induction period, prior to appointment, and a well-established programme of support throughout the year, whilst more experienced colleagues have many opportunities to develop skills and extend their professional learning through an extensive and varied programme of professional development.

We are an inclusive and supportive trust who understands that our employees have commitments beyond work. We have a generous approach to flexible working, annual leave, compassionate leave and supporting our staff in times of difficulty. Your wellbeing is of utmost importance to us.

An introduction to the role

A message from the Head of School

Thank you for your interest in the post of Class Teacher for Year 2. We are looking for an individual who has a passion for working with children of all abilities and backgrounds and who is ambitious for all. Quest Primary pupils are well motivated and a pleasure to work with, whilst our staff are hard-working and ambitious for themselves and others. Our facilities enable us to provide the very best learning environment and learning experiences for our pupils and it is the combination of these factors that leads to the improving standards at our school and the enviable reputation that The Collegiate Trust has built. I hold the highest aspirations for what we are doing and achieve for our pupils at Quest Primary.

The Job Description and Person Specification shown in this pack will give you a good indication of who we are looking for, including the skills and experience that would make for our ideal candidate.

I would be delighted to receive an application from you if, upon consideration, you feel that this role and our Trust may be right for you. If you have any queries or would like an informal discussion about the role, please contact the school office on admin@questprimary.org.uk

Head of School, Quest Primary School

About Quest Primary School

Quest Primary School is a one-form entry school of 221 pupils (including a Nursery), set on a spacious and attractive site. Our focus on developing excellent teaching and learning, supported by an engaging and ambitious curriculum offer, ensures that pupils can achieve their potential in a supportive and caring environment. Our staff provide a calm and purposeful learning environment where good behaviour and mutual respect is modelled by all and where everyone is valued, so that pupils enjoy coming to school and are enthusiastic about their learning. Our Enhanced Learning Provision (ELP), provide specialist teaching for 14 children with Moderate Learning Difficulties. Our ELP pupils follow a bespoke curricula which is designed to prioritise their needs and support them to make the most progress in those areas which will have the greatest impact on their life chances.

Quest Primary School pupils are hard-working, polite, respectful and understand that learning changes lives. We believe in giving our children opportunities to enrich their formal academic learning through sport, music and the arts, as well as providing them with opportunities to develop their leadership skills. Our school values of Excellence, Responsibility and Aspiration, support every child to strive to reach their best, ensuring they leave Quest Primary School as confident, well-rounded and kind young people, with the academic skills they require to be successful at the next stage of their education. Our children are inclusive and value and celebrate the differences and experiences that they share as a school community, adhering to our behaviour rules of 'be ready, be respectful and be safe.'

We have a large site with wonderful spacious grounds, including our EYFS outdoor learning area. We have a computer suite for all children to access as well as tablets and iPads that are used to support learning within the classroom. Our Discovery Hub is a dedicated space for teaching DT and science which is equipped with ovens, fridges, sinks and work areas, which supports building academic and life skills. We have a fantastic nurture room which offers a space for children who receive additional interventions to access ELSA, counselling and art therapies, as well as lunchtime clubs. Our facilities enable us to provide the very best learning environment and learning experiences for our pupils.

Our staff team are friendly, supportive and work collaboratively together to achieve the best for our pupils. The small size of our school means we know each child/family well and build strong supportive relationships with parents and carers throughout a child's time here. We benefit from a talented and highly committed team of staff, who proactively welcome opportunities for professional development and their own growth. Quest Primary School supports high-quality professional development for all staff. This is enacted through our CPD programme and Performance Development processes.

Our aim in all appointments is to appoint colleagues who will share our aspirations and make a major contribution to building the best life chances for our Quest Primary pupils. If you are a team-player, ambitious for our pupils and for your own professional development and committed to making a difference and providing an exceptional education for all, then we would be delighted to receive your application to join our thriving team.

'I joined the team at Quest Primary a year ago and enjoy working in a positive and supportive environment, where there are opportunities for career progression. The Quest Primary team is welcoming and friendly, with great leaders who support all staff. I have a huge sense of satisfaction from working here and the opportunity to develop myself here and learn new skills has been life changing.' Learning Coach.

About The Collegiate Trust

TCT has grown out of Riddlesdown Collegiate, a large, outstanding (OFSTED, March 2023) secondary school in Croydon with a longstanding reputation for high standards and an exceptional education. Since 2015, our Trust has been growing and, today, we are a family of 8 schools with c.6000 pupils and 800+ employees. The planned addition of a further secondary school will bring our Trust to c.7000 pupils and c.1000 employees.

Our strong culture of ambition is focussed clearly on PEOPLE and LEARNING. We ensure that the best interests of all those in our communities are always at the heart of our decision-making.

The work of The Collegiate Trust is informed by our core values: Ambition and Collaboration, leading to Achievement and Enjoyment.

There are three particular themes that drive our work and can be described as our keys to success:

Partnership – We work hard to cultivate strong professional relationships with each other, with our pupils, with their families and the wider community as we see this as the foundation on which our Trust is built.

Progress – To us, progress means much more than academic improvement. We place a great focus on personal and professional growth for all members of our community and it is this emphasis on continuous improvement that enables our pupils to fulfil their potential.

Preparation – Whether for the next stage of education, for work or for a future that is uncertain, it is our view that the prime purpose of school is to prepare young people for the rest of their lives. It is our intention to prepare all pupils to achieve their goals and to go on to enjoy happy and successful futures.
